

Scramble Tiles 2

Separate the grid so that each group has each tile once. All the tiles should be connected to each other on at least one side to form a group.

There are several possible solutions. Try to find the unique solution where each group forms a different shape!

